FABBITES

CIVERINOS SLICE, EDINBURGH

In 140 characters A little taste of the Big Apple just seconds from the historic Royal Mile, this neighbourhood pizza bar dishes up drool-worthy slices.

Fab for A quick bite during a busy day of shopping and sightseeing. Be restrained with just a slice, from £3.75, or pig out (no judgment!) on an entire pizza, from £19.

The vibe With its buzzy neon colours and quirky artwork, this is a seriously Instagrammable eatery. High stools and paper plates give it a cool, casual feel.

Eat The Sleeps With The Fishes slice, £4.80, packs a punch with anchovies, olives, capers and chilis. While the deep-pan Triple Double slice, £5.50, is loaded with pepperoni and mozzarella. And try a side of fries with the addictive house sauce, £5. We just had space for a Civerinos Calzone with Nutella and mascarpone, £10, before drifting into a carb coma.

Drink Alcoholic slushies? Yes please! The Citty Vimto with Blue W&D and Chianti, £5, is a deliciously boozy (and lethal) version of a fave childhood drink. Hic.

Hot gossip The diner offers a takeaway menu, perfect for a pizza picnic in The Meadows park, just across the road.
