Take a look at Civerinos' Easter calzone

An award-winning Italian street food restaurant in Edinburgh, specialising in New York wood fired pizza, is serving up a special edition dessert of broken chocolate Easter egg calzone as part of its Easter offering.

From today right through until Easter Monday, both branches of Civerinos are serving up the Easter treat.

Guests can either bring in their very own Easter egg and they will turn it into a Civerinos broken chocolate egg calzone for £5 or alternatively the restaurants will use their own stash of Easter eggs and will whip up a dessert special for £10.
